Life's Journey

Denny Lee Brown, Jr., was born April 12, 1966 to Denny Lee Brown and Jimmie Lee Odems-Brown in San Antonio, Texas. He accepted Christ at Lilly Of The Valley Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Steven Owens, Sr. He received his formal education in the San Antonio Independent School District, graduating from Sam Houston High School.

Following high school, Denny entered the workforce. He owned, operated and drove trucks for over thirty years. Denny met and untied in matrimony to Demetres Lynette McKinnon and to this union three children were born. Denny was a hobbyist with his love for trucking. He was proficient in every craft he chose from maintaining his (Rig) big truck under the hood to shinning the lug nuts. His passion for driving went onto enjoying and loving motorcycles. Denny continued to master his talents over the years and excelled to rebuilding motorcycles. Once he completed a bike he loved to ride and show off his skills. Denny joined several motorcycle clubs to meet new riders, but at the end he was his own club, "A Free Rider." His hands did not stop at working in mechanics, he was also a craftsman. Denny would build fence, replace water pipes, paint, install appliances, hang Christmas lights and was very detailed when it came to yard work. He was always doing something positive.

Denny had a smile that would light up any room when he entered. He was the life of the party from Dominoes to telling tall tales. Denny will forever live in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Denny was preceded in death by his father, Denny Lee Brown, Sr. He leaves to cherish his memory his children, Denny Lee Brown, III, April Denise Brown, Devin Lee Brown (Venecia), Malaezha Carter and Malcom Johnson; mother, Jimmie Lee Brown; grandchildren, Desean Brown, A'niya Green, A'niko Ross, Chief and Chapo Brown; one brother, Elliot Brown; aunts, Siri Brown, Rethan Sykes, Shirley Sance and Pala Fischer; nieces, Elisha Corley (Donta) and Takeisha Harris; nephews, Darryl Mitchell, Brandon McKinnon and a host of relatives and friends.
