

FAMILY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you only spoke the kindest words, as only a friend would say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever was your part, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It is all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

THE LIFE STORY OF GREGORY DWAYNE PRICE

Gregory Dwayne Price earned his wings on Tuesday, February 9, 2021 at the age of 53. Gregory Dwayne Price was born on November 25, 1967 to Larry Belford and LaRuth Price in Wichita Falls, TX. At the age of seven, after the passing of his mother LaRuth, Greg and his siblings moved to San Antonio, TX, where he was raised by his grandparents, J.L. and L.V. Bryant, as they knew it took a village to train up a child.

He attended school in the San Antonio Independent School District and at the age of 18, enlisted in the United States Army. Greg is best remembered for his beautiful smile and funny sense of humor.

Gregory Dwayne Price was preceded in death by his mother, LaRuth Price, his grandparents J.L & L.V. Bryant, his uncle, Calvin Price and aunt, Evelyn Clauson.

He leaves to cherish his memory, daughters, Mahogany Chambers and Quinchelle (Alexe) Francois Jr.; sons, Tevin Hights and Kiren Richardson; grandchildren, Jah'Reese Clark, Breon Thomas, Milania Brown and Gianna Francois; father, Larry Belford; brothers, Victor (Stacy) Price and Kevin Price, sister, Karla Price; Uncle Doyle and Aunt Barbara Price, Uncle Harry Belford and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
