Life's Journey

Mamie Lee Johnson Hardeman, a beautiful baby girl, was born on September 1, 1917 to Austin Johnson, Jr. and Emma Mason Johnson in Lockhart, Texas, Caldwell County. Mamie received her formal education through the local school system. Mamie accepted Christ at an early age. She was a Charter Member of the Antioch Missionary Baptist Church and a Charter Member of the Mt. Sinai Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Rufus Wilson. Mamie loved the Lord and kept him first in her life. She was the Mother Of The Greater New Mt. Zion Baptist Church, under the leadership of Rev. Jesse Hardeman, her son, and now Rev. Tony Grant. She was active in the church serving in the choir, Usher Board, Sunday School and Mission Board.

Mamie met and united in matrimony to Harvey Hardeman in August of 1932 and to this union six children were born.. Following this union the couple relocated to San Antonio, Texas, where Mr. Hardeman gained employment as Cook at Facs Potato Chip Company to care for his family. Mamie was a talented Seamstress and a loving housewife. She could use a local newspaper as a pattern to make any outfit. Together they worked and purchased their home at 627 Potomac, where they remained, rearing their children in love and in the Lord. Mamie and her husband, Harvey, both remained at this residence until both of their passing. The Lord showed favor on this union for fifty-one years.

Mamie enjoyed life and her hobbies were singing and playing the Tambourine. She also enjoyed sporting events, especially the Wheatly High School Lions. She loved to travel and would travel to Missouri for baseball events with her only son, Harvey Jr. Mamie has also traveled to Hawaii for the birth of two of her grandchildren and to church associations and many trips including fellowship with Pastor Hardeman. Mamie remained active in the church throughout her life. While serving in church she was active as Choir President of #2 and served on Usher Board #2. She always had a good heart, always doing what was right and was a good listener.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I am not here to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes are filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today.
While thinking of the many things we did not get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you.
And each time you think of me, I know that you will miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready, in heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life I'd always thought I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, so much yet to do,
It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving all of you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you, and maybe see you smile.
But then I fully realized that this could never be,
For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne,
He said, "This is eternity, and all I've promised you.
Today your life on earth is past, but here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, today will always last,
And since each day's the same way there's no longing for the past.
But you have been so faithful, so trusting and so true.
Though there were times you did some things
You knew you shouldn't do.
But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free.
So won't you take My hand and share my life with Me!
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.

Mamie was preceded in death by her first born son and her siblings, Ora Lee, Abner, Bea, Vanilla, Vernest, Dorothy, Eugene and Sadie B. She leaves to cherish her memory her children Vera, Betty, Harvey, Jr. and Jesse, Sr., Vanilla; twelve grandchildren, Leon, Tina, LaMinta, Landrea, Clarence Jr, Byron, Derrick, Jesse Jr., Jermaine, Tera, JaKisha, Taurian; one brother, Ernest Johnson and a host of great grandchildren and many relatives and special friend, Nadine Johnson.

When I've Changed My Address To Heaven

I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here,
for the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world goodbye.
I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky.
I have no burdens or heartaches
And from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore.
For the Lord built a mansion
And my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
For where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.
