Cynthia's Life's Journey

Cynthia Ann Demps, affectionately known to most as “Goo-Goo” was born in Taylor, Texas, November 11, 1971 to her loving mother, Melvina (Nookie) Demps. Cynthia professed her love for Christ at an early age at East St. John Baptist Church under the leadership of the Late Pastor J. C. Cain. She later rededicated her life to Christ at New Testament Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Bernard Willis, She received her formal education in the San Antonio Independent School District.

Following her high school years, she entered the workforce and was employed as a Certified Nursing Assistant. Cynthia left an everlasting memory on the many lives she touched. To know her was to love her. Cynthia had a smile and laugh that was unforgettable. Although Cynthia had no children of her own, she loved on everyone's kids. She would feed and care for all the family and the neighborhood kids.

Cynthia met Eula “April” Powell ten years ago and have been best of friends since that time. Cynthia had a special agenda with God that only she could keep. We loved Cynthia but God Loved Her Best.

On Sunday, March 21, 2021, Cynthia answered the Master's call. Cynthia will be greeted at Heavens Gates by her sister, Ossie Marie Brown and her grandparents, R. L. Demps and Mary Demps. Cynthia leaves to cherish and honor her memory her loving mother, Melvina Demps; sisters, Glenda Drummond (Job) and Lynette Demps, both of San Antonio, Texas; one brother, Ossie Thomas, Jr.; nieces and nephews, Melvin Ray Cain, Nyeshia Marie Cain, George Edward Cain, Melvina Joyce Cain, Albert Ray Drummond, Charles Ray Drummond, Job Drummond, Jr., Kyeshia Yvette Shavonne Drummond; aunts, Alice Mannings, New Haven, Connecticut, Mae Dell Warner, Vera Moreland, Ruby Jo Sheffield and a host of family and friends.
