The Life Of A Mother

By: Armonie Overton

*Yes, you made your mistakes
You've kept us all awake
Look how much we've grown
Wanting nothing but to see you home.
You walked this life with downfalls
As well as uprisings*

The love we have for you is all but shining

A Mother

A Sister

A Lover

A Wife

Today we will celebrate your Life.

Life's Journey

Rochelle D. Swindell went home to be with her Heavenly Father, February 2, 2021. Rochelle was born November 11, 1982, in San Antonio, Texas. She accepted Christ in 1987 with membership at the Mt. Zion First Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Claude Black and now the present pastor, Rev. Otis I. Mitchell. She received her formal education in the public school system attending Dorie Miller and Fox Tech High School where she was a part of the Track Team. Rochelle was an outstanding Track Star with a special gift. She furthered her education attending Arkansas Pine Bluff. She was a good student.

Rochelle soon entered the workforce and was employed in the restaurant business. She was a hard worker and put everything she had into whatever she did. Rochelle was a beautiful person with a good heart. She had an agenda that only she could keep. Now it is time for her rest. We loved Rochelle but God Loved Her Best.

Rochelle was preceded in death by her paternal grandparents, Ira and Helen Young, her aunt and uncle, Levonne and Allen Parker from Flint, Michigan and one uncle, Cleophus Turner from Sheridan, Arkansas. She leaves to cherish her memory her husband, Clarence Lee; children, Armonie Overton and Lanae Swindell; mother, Linda Young; father, Kendall Bryon Young; maternal grandparents, Willie and Wanda Swindell; siblings, Ronald Swindell and Kendall Young; aunts and uncles, Ira Young, Jr. (Gene), Ardelia Kay Turner, Att. Sandra Harris (Herbert), Dr. Sadie Hughes (Larry), Wain (Anita) and Reggie (Natley) and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
