I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for I'm free I'm following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard Him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship started, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much, Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now. He set me free!

Life's Journey

Christell Thomas Scott was born July 23, 1934 to Porter Thomas and Jessie Mae Blackman in Williamson County, Taylor, Texas. He accepted Christ at an early age with membership at the Butler Chapel AME Church under the leadership of Rev. Smith. Christell went on to receive her formal education in San Antonio attending Sojourner Truth in Kenwood. Christell went on to further her education attending Vocational School earning her license as a CNA and through Hick Beauty School as a Hair Stylist.

Christell soon entered the workforce and was employed for AT&T in the Janitorial Department. She later was employed at the State Hospital and always kept her clients as a Hair Stylist. Christell met and married Jack Scott on December 4, 1959 in Seguin, Guadalupe County, Texas. Christell was a loving wife and mother caring for her family. She had a good heart and a beautiful spirit. Christell had an agenda with God that only she could keep. We loved Christell but God Loved Her Best.

Christell was preceded in death by her parents, Porter Thomas, Sr. and Jessie Mae Blackman, brothers, Porter Thomas, Jr. and Sherman Thomas, daughter, Dorothy Flowers, stepfather, Elorance Hayes, sons, Donald Lee and Ronald Lee. She leaves to cherish her memory her daughter, Sandra L. Davison; son, Tommy Lee Scott; son-in-law, Johnny Davison, Sr.; daughter-in-law, Yoko Scott; son-in-law, Rudolph Flowers, Jr. and a host of grandchildren; brother, John Thomas; sister, Teresa Scott and other loving relatives and friends. Christell's family was filled with Joy.
