Words Of Gratitude

Perhaps you dropped by to say hello or called us on the phone. Maybe you visited for a while to keep us from being alone. You may have sent flowers or a card to show you cared. Possibly you did not come at all but remembered us in prayer. Whatever kindness extended in our bereavement Is accepted with a sincere gratitude and thanks that is everlasting.

Rasheika's Life Reflection's

Rasheika King was the fifth child of six children, born August 6, 1986 to the parentage of Kenneth Clayton King, Sr. and Charlene Miller in San Antonio, Texas. She received her formal education in the public school system attending John Jay High School.

Rasheika was such a likable person with a bubbly spirit. She loved to joke, laugh, and enjoyed spending time with family and friends. She made a lasting impression on all she encountered. Rasheika will forever live in our hearts and will truly be missed by everyone who knew her.

Rasheika has fulfilled her life journey and now it is time for her to take her rest. She was preceded in death by her father, paternal grandmother and one niece. She leaves to cherish her memory her mother, Charlene Miller; three sisters, Angela Miller, Amanda King and Latasha King; two brothers, Kenneth C. King, Jr. and Isaac King; stepmother, Theora Walker King; stepbrother, Donell Walker and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Autumn Rain

*Do not stand at my grave and weep, I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain, I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's, hush I am the swift uplifting rush,
Of quiet birds in circling flight. I am the soft star-shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there, I did not die.*
