

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the path of righteousness. For his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; Thou Rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. Psalm 23

Words Of Gratitude

We express our thanks to all of you for your kind expressions of love and sympathy. For all the kindness you have shown, we thank you very much. For sympathy in sorrowing days, for friendships healing touch. With gratitude our hearts are full, though words cannot convey the tender thoughts and thankfulness we hold for you today.

Patrick's Life Reflection's

Patrick James Lee, Jr. was born July 30, 1956 to Patrick James Lee, Sr. and Verna Mae Towles in New Orleans, Louisiana. He accepted Christ at an early age acknowledging Jesus as his Lord and Savior. James received his formal education in the Louisiana School System, graduating from Sunshine High School in Sunshine, Louisiana.

Patrick soon entered the workforce and was employed at Exxon Chemical Plant in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, where he was employed for ten plus years. In 2005 Patrick became disable and was unable to continue working. He later relocated to San Antonio, Texas. While residing in San Antonio, Patrick continued his relationship with the Lord and joined the Progressive Baptist Church, where he served under the leadership of Rev. Emmitt Smith.

Patrick never married but lived an enjoyable life with family and friends, who loved him so very much. Patrick will be truly missed, but will forever live in our hearts.

Patrick was preceded in death by his mother, Verna Mae Harris and his brothers, Henry, Nelson, Ronald and Donald. He leaves to cherish his memory his father, Patrick James Lee, Sr.; stepfather, Eugene Harris; baby brother, Marvin Lee (Angelica); aunts, Emma Mae Towles, Stella Lee and Addie Lee; sister-in-law, Dolores Banks Lee; three nieces, Jennifer, Jovanna and Fatima; one nephew, Dalziel; close close cousins that loved him dearly, other relatives, friends and acquaintances.

In Tears

In tears we saw you sinking and watched you fade away. Our hearts were almost broken, we wanted you to stay. But we saw you sleeping so peaceful so free from pain. How could we want you back with us, to suffer from pain again. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone. For part of us went with you The day God took you home.
