*A loved one from us is gone,
A voice we love is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
Which can never be filled.*

To Those I Love And To Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, just release me and let me go.

So I can move into my afterglow.

You mustn't tie me down with your tears,

Let's be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love, you can only guess how much.

You gave me in happiness.

I thank you for the love each have shown,

But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for a while that we must part

So bless the memories within your heart.

And when you must come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile, and say...

"Welcome Home."

Family Acknowledgement

Perhaps you dropped by to say hello or called us on the phone. Maybe you visited for a while, to keep us from being alone. You may have sent flowers or a card to show you cared. Possibly you didn't come at all but remembered us in prayer. Whatever kindness extended in our time of bereavement is accepted with a sincere gratitude that is everlasting.

Gary Smith was born August 19, 1989 to the parentage of Gary Johnson and Lynell Simmons Smith in New Orleans, Louisiana.
