Life's Journey

Clarence Erwin Lewis, was born July 7, 1957, to Caiaphas Lewis and Clarice Robinson Lewis in Hahn, Germany. Around the age of five years old, Clarence was brought to the United States. When he arrived he didn't know or understand English, he would only speak German. He later learned to speak English and was a very smart and talented person. Clarence accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of the Greater Ball Tabernacle Church. He received his formal education in the public school system graduating from Highlands High School.

Clarence went on to further his education attending Dickerson Automotive and Trade School. Clarence soon entered the workforce and was employed at various jobs throughout his life. He was an employee for the City Of San Antonio, he worked for Animal Control of two and a half years and he was also employed for Janitorial Services. Clarence relocated at one time and was employed in New Orleans, as well as in Lake Jackson with the Dow Company.

Clarence was a very good artist and painter. He was a jack of all trades and would do anything you asked of him. Anything he put his mind to he pushed to achieve it. Clarence taught himself to swim and was good at it. He was very well known and liked by many in his community. He was always respectful to everyone and had a kind heart and spirit. Clarence loved his family and friends. He had a special love for his one and only daughter and grandchildren. His daughter was the joy of his life and he called her his "Chocolate Drop."

Clarence was preceded in death by his parents, Caiaphas and Clarice Lewis and his grandmother, Clarice Robinson-Davis. He leaves to cherish his memory his only daughter, Daubricea Clabrey Lewis; four grandchildren, Daumonziaya, A'Zamiere, DaeZontay and DeTayveon; one brother, Daryl Keith Edward Lewis; four sisters, Wanda Campbell, Phyllis Henderson, Detra Lynnette Lewis, all of San Antonio, Texas and LaJoy Annette Williams, Federal Way, Washington; nine nieces, six nephews and a host of cousins and great nieces, great nephews, other close family and friends.
