Life Reflection's

Grailand Evans, was born January 8, 1949 to Vernon L. Evans and Ernest Mae Williams in San Antonio, Texas. Grailand accepted Christ into his life at an early age at the True Holiness Church. He received his formal education in the San Antonio Independent School District attending Poe Middle School and Brackenridge High School.

Following his high school years, Grailand went on to enlist in the United States Army. He served his country as a Direct Fire Crewman, earning commendations such as: Vietnam Service Medal with w/2 Bronze Stars, Combat Infantryman Badge Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal, Air Medal w/1 Oak Leaf Cluster, Purple Heart and Rifle Marksman. Grailand completed three years of honorable service. After completing his military service, Grailand returned home and was self-employed. He had excellent carpentry skills and did construction for private homes and businesses.

Grailand met and united in matrimony to Collette Tyler in 1988. He later united in matrimony to Stacey Fillmore and this union remained as one until his passing. Grailand enjoyed fishing, painting and spending time with his grandchildren. He was always helping someone complete projects around their home. He would lend a helping hand where needed and give guidance if necessary. Grailand kept a relationship with the Lord throughout his life and in 2008 joined the New Mount Pleasant Beran Baptist Church in Victoria, Texas. He knew God was the reason for his life.

Grailand was preceded in death by his parents, Vernon L. Evans and Ernest Mae Evans, his first wife, Collette Tyler Evans, brother, Ernest "Ed" Evans and his sister, Linda Evans Hoyle. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Stacey Evans; children, Grailand Fields, Quibilah Ashayut Meretseger (Shamika Evans) and Arlynda Evans; step children, Jashawn Tyler, Tametria Byrd, Destiny Byrd and Adrian Barefield; brothers, Wayne Evans, Vernon Evans and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid. John 14:27

I'm Free

A friendship shared, a thought, a kiss,

Oh yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life 's been full, I found much,

Good friends, good times, a loved one 's touch

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don 't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Light up your heart and share with me,

God heard my plea and set me free!

Precious Memories
