Life's Journey

Evelyn Grace Hartfield was born on June 16, 1940 in Seguin, Texas, Guadalupe County to the parentage of John Anthony and Pearl Smith Anthony. She accepted Christ at an early age at the Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Pastor S. E. Steward. Evelyn received her formal education in the San Antonio Independent School District, graduating from Phyllis Wheatley High School in 1959. She went on to further her education attending St. Phillip's College in the Nursing Program.

Evelyn was dating her high school sweetheart, Otis Hartfield, while attending St. Phillip's College. Evelyn and Otis met while attending Douglas Middle School, they remained close while attending Phyllis Wheatley High School, also they remained close while attending St. Phillips and on November 19, 1960 the two were united in holy matrimony at the Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church. This equally yoked union remained as one throughout the years. They reared their family in love and in the Lord.

Evelyn was a part of the workforce and was employed for the San Antonio Independent School District for twenty-one years. If children came through the lunch line that did not have lunch money, she would tell them to get what ever they wanted and she would pay for it. Evelyn had a heart of gold always caring for others.

Evelyn remained a faithful member of Shiloh Baptist Church over the years. She was very active in her church serving as a member of Mission One, she served in the Usher Board, President of the Senior Usher Board, she was in charge of the Culinary Staff and Kitchen. She loved to cook for her pastor, church members, family and friends. Cooking was her specialty and she cooked with LOVE. Evelyn was not a member of the church choir but loved to sing gospel songs. Evelyn was a very outspoken person and would say whatever came to mind. Evelyn always greeted everyone with a hug and a smile. She was a loving and a God fearing Christian.

Evelyn was preceded in death by her parents, John Anthony and Pearl Smith Anthony, two sisters, Joyce Hartfield and Eloise Booker and her aunt, Rebecca Smith who was her Godmother. She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted husband, Otis "Buddy" Hartfield; four children, James Hartfield (Patricia), Angela Glass (Rev. Larry), Joyce Reese (Jack) and Eric Hartfield; seven grandchildren, Manika, Corey, Jasmine, Jackie, Jamal, Janisha and Ericka; three great grandchildren, Isaiah, Christian and Donald, Jr.; one aunt, Florence Render and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Family Acknowledgement

For all the kindness you have shown, we thank you very much in sorrowing days, for friendships healing touch. With gratitude our hearts are full, though words cannot convey the tender thoughts and thankfulness we hold for you today.

God Saw You

*God saw you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you
And whispered come to me.*

*With tearful eyes we watched you,
And saw you pass away.
And though we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.*

*A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He Only Takes The Best.*
