Life's Journey

Carl Dwayne King, was born April 6, 1970 to Charles E. Ziegler and Mary L. King in San Antonio, Texas. Carl accepted Christ at an early age at the New Union Missionary Baptist Church on the Eastside of San Antonio. He received his formal education in the public school system attending Pershing Elementary, Park Village, Woodlake, Emerson Middle School and graduating from Fox Tech High School in 1988. Fox Tech was one of the first high schools that offered the Cosmetology Program and this is where Carl earned his Cosmetology License.

Following graduation, Carl soon entered the workforce and was employed by the Willow Development Center. Carl loved helping those in need and those that could not do for themselves. He was later employed at the San Antonio State Hospital and the San Antonio State School. Carl was a dedicated employee, always doing more than was asked. He was very good in what he did and always held a supervisor position.

Carl continued a relationship with the Lord throughout his life. He was a member of Greater Love Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Lester J. Gillespie. Carl truly loved his church and his pastor. Carl's words were "Know my life not the story". He worked very hard to care for and rear five boys. He put all he had into these boys. Carl always cared about the wellbeing of others more than the wellbeing of himself. He gave advice and a hand wherever needed. Carl loved his family and would do anything to keep everyone close and together. He enjoyed life, was very outgoing and lived life to the fullest. Three weeks prior to Carl's passing, the Lord had already Spoken to Carl that Earth would no longer be his home. God called Carl's name and he answered. God wrapped His loving arms around him and took him home. We will truly miss Carl but God Loved Him Best.

Carl was preceded in death by his father, Charles E. Ziegler, brother, Troy E. King, Sr., grandmothers, Dora Ziegler and Evelyn King, grandfather, Raphael King, two sons, Justin T. Freeman, Troy E. King, Jr., and uncles and aunts whom he dearly loved. He leaves to cherish his memory his mother, Mary King; one son, Robert Thomas (Clarissa); brothers, Gregory King (Kalin) and Norman King (Lisa); sisters, LaSonya Rice and LaShawn Sorrell; uncles, Mark, Dennis, Thomas and Jeff; aunts, Shirley, Beverly and Susan; grandchildren, Tramani King, Tranae King, Tradell King, Ziamua King, Aleyah King, Troy E. King, III, Cardell King, Jordan Thomas, Armani Thomas, Justin Thomas, Areina Thomas and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loving relatives and many friends.

He Gave Me Time To Die

God is so gracious and so kind in so many ways

He did not arrest my soul in anger

But He gave me special days.

He knows the things about us that need His special touch

And for the extra time He gave us, we thank Him very much!

His word has said that He could come as assailing as a thief by day,

But not me did He alarm, He gave me time in every kind of way.

I laid there and thought about so much I need to say to Him

And you know I kinda needed that time,

For I had so much locked up within.

I had some wrong I needed to right

I had some faults I needed to make known,

And the fact He gave me this time,

Reminded me that I was still His own.

He gave me time to die, make sure things were well

He know that I would use the time wisely,

And now doth victory prevail!

Sure there was suffering and true, there was agony and pain

But through it all He was with me,

And I kept on calling His name.

If you are in this life and sickness comes your way,

Cheer up, sad heart, and don't feebly cry...

You just may need that time to die!
