Life Reflection's

Justin Rice was born April 3, 1997, to Jimmy Rice and Elizabeth Brown in San Antonio, Texas. He received his formal education in the public school system attending Roosevelt High School.

Justin was an entrepreneur, while helping his brother to start his business soon after venturing out on his own. Justin loved to travel and he loved his family. He was very family oriented. Justin enjoyed life and was always laughing and smiling. He enjoyed dancing and most of the time you could find him with his brother, "Two Peas in a Pod". He was very outgoing and loved his nieces and nephews.

Justin lived his life with joy, happiness and most of all with family. He had an agenda with the Lord that only he could keep. We will truly miss Justin, but God Loved Him Best.

Justin was preceded in death by Jimmy Robinson and Jarrel Robinson. He leaves to cherish his memory his mother, Elizabeth Brown and father, Jimmy Rice; sisters, Sharlet Brown and Precious Robinson; brothers, Irecse Forcey and Bernell Gardner; nieces, Treanna, Shariah, Sharnic, Iyianna, Aria, and Stori; nephews, Yah'el, Charles and a host of other loving family members and friends.

Recessional

Don't Weep For Me

Don't come to the Stone where "sorrows" meet,
To hang your head and weep for me.

Don't waste those tears, don't soil the ground.
I'm the spirit of comfort that floats past clouds.

A aura of peace, the chill through the breeze...
I'm the unexplained flight in a honey bee.

A calm in the tide, the vision of hope that ignites tired eyes.
SO LOOK TO THE SKIES that's where I'll be don't come to the Stone
Where "sorrow" meet to hang your head and weep for me.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I am not here to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes are filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today.
While thinking of the many things we did not get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you.
And each time you think of me, I know that you will miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready, in heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life I'd always thought I didn't want to die.

I had so much to live for, so much yet to do,
It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving all of you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you, and maybe see you smile.
But then I fully realized that this could never be,
For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.

When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne,
He said, "This is eternity, and all I've promised you.
Today your life on earth is past, but here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, today will always last,
And since each day's the same way there's no longing for the past.
But you have been so faithful, so trusting and so true.
Though there were times you did some things
You knew you shouldn't do.
But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free.
So won't you take My hand and share my life with Me!
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.
