Our Dear Prince,

Ernest Franks you took your wings so soon

You couldn't wait til morning

You couldn't wait til noon

If only some how we knew

That you'd be saying goodbye

We could have laughed much longer

We wouldn't have to cry

Oh well we won't be selfish

Let the angels see your smile

God knows the good inside you

It was there since you were a child

Though sometimes here on earth

You were badly misunderstood take your rest from all your enemies

And celebrate like you should

Grandma Allie, Grandpa Felton will greet you in the way

Your uncles and cousins ole friends too will lift their heads and say

Come home Ernest, no more troubles

Life here is truly grand

The war is over. You fought so well

Stick your sword in the sand. R.I.P.

Love Your Aunt, Valness Wheeler

Life's Journey

Ernest Franks was born January 19, 1981 to Louise Franks and Ernest L. Cochran in San Antonio, Texas. He received his formal education in the public school system and went on to earn his GED. Ernest accepted Christ into his life at the Prince Of Peace Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Iris Woodard James.

Ernest entered the workforce and was employed for Popeyes Restaurant. He was a good father and loved his family. He made it a point to always keep check on them. Ernest always kept a smile on his face and was the center of attention wherever he went. He enjoyed life and lived as a free spirit. Ernest had his own agenda with the Lord that only he could keep. We will truly miss Ernest but God Loved Him Best.

Ernest was preceded in death by his grandmother, Allie Mae Franks and Felton Franks. He leaves to cherish his memory his eight children; his mother, Louise Franks; father, Ernest L. Cochran; two brothers, Edward Perkins and Dwayne Perkins; two sisters, Louise Stevenson and Porcha Stevenson; two aunts in Atlanta, Georgia and a host of other loving aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends.

Special Tribute

You spent 40 years on this earth, then God called you home. I can't express the pain I felt when I heard you were gone. It wasn't easy to let you go, but your in a better place. I know you were a blessing to everyone. Everywhere you went you stole the show and you always had that smile on your face. You won't be here tomorrow or the days to come. When it comes to Ernest Franks there will never be another one. Well Done Son, Well Done.
