Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me, but be content.
I was not yours, but only lent.
Please dry those tears and weep no more,
My soul has only gone before.
There's a great reward, I've done my work.
I've labored long, I've sung my song,
Now this race of life is run. His crown awaits me,
At the Setting Sun.
Weep not for me, but be content,
I was not yours, but only lent.

Life Reflections

Margaret Aguirre, was born February 19, 1961 in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Her father was Seferino Ortiz. She received her formal education in the public school system.

Margaret had many talents and loved needlepoint. She would often make things for other people and their table settings. She enjoyed eating fried bologna with cheese and scrambled eggs with mustard and salt. Margaret hated comedy movies, but she really loved horror movies with zombies and monsters. She was a fun and loving person. Margaret's favorite memories came from spending time with family and friends

She leaves behind to cherish her memory two daughters, Maria and Juanita Arambula and two sons, Juan and Oscar Arambula. Margaret will forever live in our hearts.

A loved one from us is gone,
A voice we love is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
Which can never be filled

To Those I Love & Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do,

You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,

But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess

How much you've given me in happiness.

I thank you for the love that you have shown,

But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It is only for a while that we must part,

So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.

And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,

All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home.
