He later continued his love and passion for music singing in a band called, "The Finishing Touch" in and around San Antonio throughout the 70's. For many years he lived in Kansas sharing his love and smile in the service industry.

He leaves to cherish his memory his parents, Mary and Alphonia Coleman, Sr.; brothers, Fred Coleman (Cheryl), Houston, Texas and Garland Coleman (Lakesha), Seguin, Texas; four sisters, Rose Cunningham, Deborah Brady (Clifford), Linda Jackson (Theodore), all of San Antonio, Texas and Carla Monette (Dale), Houston Texas; Stella and Latoya Young of San Antonio, Judge Elaine Marshall Augustine (Steve) a cousin like a sister of Houston, Texas and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and close friends.

In Memory Of A Special Brother

Little did we know the day that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories. Your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, your always at our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one the chain will link again. So today is full of memories of a Brother laid to rest and every single one of them is filled with happiness. For you were someone special always such a joy to know and there was so much pain, when it was time to let you go. So Bubba, Al-E this is a special message sent to heaven above for the angels to take care of you and give you all our love.

Love, Your Brothers and Sisters

Path Of Healing

Sometime the path to healing is not an easy one,
But the Lord is walking right in there by my side.

His hand will be within my reach,
He'll guard my every step.

His love will light my way and be my guide.

May God, answer all my prayers
That has been said or asked.

That He watch over my family
And give them the strength to move on,
And the health they need with all His blessings.
With me as your Guardian Angel watching over you.

Love, Al

Loving Memories Of A Special Son

God didn't make us father and son by birth.
Instead, He gave us a friendship with more worth.
You will always be my friend and my son in my heart.
To lose someone so special is really hard to bear
It hardly seems believable that you're no longer there
You left us far too early before your time it seems

And now you'll never have the chance to fulfill all those dreams
However hard it is though, we'll take comfort in the thought
Of all the memories we have and the happiness you brought
You always lived life to the fullest but our life won't be the same
Until the day when we can see your smiling face again.

Forever In Our Heart,

Love, Mom and Dad
