He Only Takes The Best

God saw that she was getting tired,
And a cure was not to be.
So He put his arms around her
And whispered, "come to me".
With tearful eyes we watched her suffer,
And saw her fade away.
Although we loved her dearly,
We could not make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
A determined spirit was at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He Only Takes The Best.

Life Reflections

Ruby Estelle Lindley was born on December 8, 1934 to the parentage of Mark and Elzia Lindley in Houston, Texas. She turned her life over to Christ at an early age with membership at St. Stephen's Baptist Church, Houston, Texas. After Ruby relocated to San Antonio, Texas, she united with the New Light Baptist Church where the pastor was the Rev. Dr. P. S. Wilkinson. Ruby was a member of Mission # 1. She was active and faithful to the Mission and the New Light Church until her health began to fail.

Ruby met and married Johnnie Nelson and to this union one daughter, Venessa Gail Nelson, was born. They remained united as one until God called Johnnie home. Ruby later met and married Alvin Lott and became the mother to his five children: Sylvia, Roy, Queen, Roger and Lynda. Ruby and Alvin also remained united as one until he answered the master's call to come home. Ruby was loving and had a good heart. She will forever remain with us in memory and spirit.

Ruby leaves to cherish her memory her daughter, Vanessa Nelson-Tyrone and her husband, Gregory Tyrone and a host of many other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh to love, work or play. Task left undone must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship started, a laugh a kiss, ah yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with tears of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, He Set Me Free.
