Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me, but be content.
I was not yours, but only lent.
Please dry those tears and weep no more,
My soul has only gone before.
There's a great reward, I've done my work.
I've labored long, I've sung my song.
Now this race of life is run. His crown awaits me,
At the setting sun.

Weep Not for Me, But Be Content,
I Was Not Yours, But Only Lent.

Life's Journey

Manuel Michael Rice was born January 3, 2000 in San Antonio, Texas. He was the son of Mary Susan (Garcia) Rice and Earl Rice Jr. He received his formal education in the East Central Independent School District, attending East Central High School.

Following his formal school years, Manuel went on to join the workforce. He was employed for McDonalds, Toyota, and Lonestar Bakery. Manuel was a hard and dedicated worker no matter what.

Manuel loved playing basketball, running track, and being with his parents and grandparents, who he spent most of his time with. He also loved to fish with his father. He loved his family and went everywhere with them. Manuel's stepmother also spent a lot of time with him, taking him around her family, where he was loved and fit right in. Manuel and his brother were really close and traveled almost everywhere together and had a really tight bond.

Manuel had a relationship with the Lord and knew that he was the reason he was here. Manuel attended Coliseum Park Baptist Church. God called Manuel's name and he answered. He is now resting in God's arms.

Manuel was preceded in death by his three aunts, Earlene, Christine, Rachael and his uncle, Clifford. He leaves to cherish his memory his parents, Earl and Mary Rice; his stepmom; grandparents Earl and Katherine Rice; aunts, Jacqueline, Bobbie, Patricia, Cynthia and a host of cousins, other loving family members and friends.

The Recessional

Love Me, But Let Me Go

When I am gone, release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do,

You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,

But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess

How much you've given me in happiness.

I thank you for the love that you have shown,

But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It is only for a while that we must part,

So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.

And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,

All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home.
