

To Those I Love & Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go.

I have so many things to see and do,

You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,

But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess

How much you've given me in happiness.

I thank you for the love that you have shown,

But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,

Then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It is only for a while that we must part,

So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.

And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.

And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,

All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home.'

Life's Journey

Kimiko Connor was born March 11, 1993, in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the son of Jaquita Ross. Kimiko relocated to San Antonio, Texas where he attended Higgs Carter-King Elementary, Davis Middle School, and Roosevelt High School in San Antonio, Texas. Kimiko accepted Christ at an early age and deeply believed in God.

Kimiko was a very hard worker and loved doing hard labor and working with his hands. He joined the workforce doing Labor Ready jobs but was recently employed for Waste Management. He was known to be a very devoted individual and would not change that for anyone.

Kimiko was preceded in death by his mother, Jaquita Ross and his grandmother, Myra Ross Brown. He leaves to cherish his memory his son, Kimiko De'Andre Connor; four brothers, Jamal Connor, Levar Glispy, Michael Govan and Raymond Washington; two sisters, Keyonna Connor and Emily Oakmond; stepmother, Tomoxie Robinson; three nephews, Jahlyl Connor, Jacquis Connor and Jah Connor; three nieces, Aniyah Newmon, Deonna, Donnisha and a host of family and friends. Kimiko will never be forgotten and will forever live in our hearts.

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while, please do not grieve and shed wild tears and hug your sorrow to you through the years. But start out bravely with a gallant smile, and for my sake and for my name live on and do all things the same. Feed not your loneliness on empty days but fill each waking hour in useful ways. Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer, and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near. And never, never Be afraid to die for I am waiting for you in the sky.
