God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be.

So, he put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you,
As you slowly slipped away,
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.

Your golden heart stopped beating;
your tired hands put to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
he only takes the best.

Family Acknowledgement

Our family extends heartfelt thanks to our friends for all the prayers and kindness shown during the homegoing of our loved one.

God Bless Each Of You.

Life's Journey

Mary Helen Black was born May 21, 1941 in San Antonio, Texas. She was the daughter of the late James McMillian and Jessie Mae Jones. Mary accepted Christ at New Light Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev P.S. Wilkinson, Sr. Mary continued her walk with the Lord at the Mt. Zion First Baptist Church where she sung in the choir. She later placed her membership at the Mt. Sinai Baptist Church. She received her education in the private school system attending St. Peter Claver Catholic High School in San Antonio, Texas.

Mary married Paul Green, Sr. and to this union four children were born. Mary later married Rev. C. William Black. Mary loved fashion, she loved to dress. She loved beautiful clothes, hats and shoes.

Mary was employed at Our Lady Of The Lake University where she served as a Telephone Operator for 20 Years. Mary loved to travel and loved to sing. She sung in various churches in and around San Antonio, Texas. She loved her family and they loved her, but God loved her best.

Mary leaves to cherish her memory her four children, Denise Green, Paul Green, Jr., Debra Bradshaw and Janet Meekins; her sister, Michelle Reed; her brother, Gene Artry Jones; grandchildren, great grandchildren and a host of family and friends.
