

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I am not here to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes are filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today.
While thinking of the many things we did not get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you.
And each time you think of me, I know that you will miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That the angels came and called my name, and they took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready, in heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life I'd always thought I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, so much yet to do,
It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving all of you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye niece and kiss you on the forehead and maybe see you smile.
But then I fully realized that this could never be,
For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne,
He said, "This is eternity, and all I've promised you.
Today your life on earth is past, but here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, today will always last,
And since each day's the same way there's no longing for the past.
But you have been so faithful, so trusting and so true.
Though there were times you did some things
You knew you shouldn't do.
But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free.
So won't you take My hand and share my life with Me!
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.
Your Niece, Barbara Jackson (Love You Uncle)

Robert E. Lee, Jr.'s Life's Journey

Robert E. Lee, Jr. was born December 18, 1958 to the late Massalin King Lee and Robert Eugene Lee, Sr. in San Antonio, Texas. He accepted Christ at an early age at Mt. Zion First Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Claude Black.

Robert received his education in the San Antonio School System and later became a devoted entrepreneur doing what he loved the most. He was known to be an avid traveler, a people person, he had a big heart, a very affectionate smile and a strong bond with his sisters, brothers and his niece, Barbara. Robert had a love for fashion and was always well groomed and dressed fashionably.

Robert married the love of his life Paulette Harrison Lee and to this union no children were born. Robert had a free spirit and was truly loved by his family and friends. He will be missed by all.

Robert was preceded in death by his mother, Massalin King Lee, father, Robert Lee, Sr., brothers, Carl Jones and Clarence Jones, niece, Sharon (Fatcat) King and a great niece, Kia. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Paulette Harrison Lee; sister, Erma King; two brothers, Tommie Lee (Zelecka), David Lee (Lesia) and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
