

Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me, but be content.

I was not yours, but only lent.

Please dry those tears and weep no more,

My soul has only gone before.

There's a great reward, I've done my work.

I've labored long, I've sung my song.

Now this race of life is run. His crown awaits me,

At the setting sun.

Weep Not for Me, But Be Content,

Life's Journey

Willis Earl Thompson was born on July 18, 1959 to the parentage of Helen E. Farley (Grimes) and Willis Thompson in San Antonio, Texas. Willis received his formal education attending Baytown Robert E. Lee School in Baytown, Texas.

Following his high school years, Willis Joined the United States Navy where he served our country for eighteen years. He served as a Seamon for eighteen years and loved being on the sea. Willis was dedicated and received an honorable discharge for a Job Well Done. After his years in the military, Willis entered the workforce where he was employed for Audi Murphy VA Hospital for eighteen years, where he worked in Housekeeping. Willis met and united in matrimony to Betty Williams.

Willis had a relationship with the Lord and was a member of the Exciting West End Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Galla. He enjoyed singing with his musical church group "Brothers In Harmony" and was an active member. Willis loved to play Chess and most importantly he enjoyed family events. Willis was truly loved by all and will be deeply missed.

Willis was preceded in death by his mother, Helen E. Farley, his father Willis Thompson, brother, Larry Thompson, grandparents, Larry Thompson and Zula Mae Thompson, Donald Lee Flint and Susie Mae Flint and his aunt, Peggy Sue Flint. He leaves to cherish his memory his siblings, Wallis Thompson (Twin Brother), Penny Thompson Citizen, Gary Thompson, Tammy Farley, Vickie Farley, Lisa Thompson, Cemone Thompson and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
