Life's Journey

Raymond Oliver Simmons was born July 4, 1954 to the late Genevieve Katherine LeBruce Simmons and John Q. Simmons in San Antonio, Texas. Raymond received most of his education in the San Antonio Independent School District attending Jefferson High School. Raymond accepted Christ at an early age at West End Church of Nazarene under the leadership of Pastor Eddie Lee Burnett.

Raymond went onto join the United States Navy where he served his country well earning an honorable discharge for a Job Well Done. Following his time in the military, Raymond entered the workforce and was employed for Kelly Air Force Base. He was known as "Paperman" and was loved by many.

Raymond met and married the love of his life, Deborah Ann Stallion on February 3, 1977 whom he loved dearly. To this union one daughter, Trena Trishay Simmons, was born. Raymond was a person that loved his family and took good care of them. We will miss Raymond but God Loved Him Best.
