Reflection of Life

Dr. Mary Ann Brown was born on February 25, 1946 in Bastrop County to Superintendent Huland and Annie Lou Williams. As a child Mary attended Glen Oak Church of God in Christ and Dale Church of God in Christ where her father was the Pastor. She was educated in the Austin Independent School System where she graduated from Anderson High School in May of 1964.

Thus began her journey of pursuing higher education. Dr. Mary achieved this goal two years later in May, 1966 by receiving her Associates of Art Degree—Teacher Training from St. Phillips College in San Antonio, Texas. She went on to earn her Bachelor's of Arts degree in Elementary Education from Huston Tillotson College; a Masters of Education degree in Guidance from Prairie View A & M University; and ultimately a Doctor of Ministry Degree in Biblical Studies.

Dr. Mary spent her career in the Austin, Houston and San Antonio areas teaching elementary education. She especially had a heart for reaching out to hurting people, especially children. Dr. Mary devoted over forty-five years making a difference in the lives of people who were hurting as a teacher, counselor, writer, public speaker Outreach Coordinator and Evangelist Missionary.

Dr. Mary was an Ordained Minister of the Gospel; Director of her own Non-Traditional Private School for "at-risk" learners and Founder and Director of "Save Our Children Outreach" Program. Dr. Mary has created and implemented appropriate programs to meet the need of "at-risk" children and families at homeless sites, public schools, public libraries, community centers, churches and nursing homes. She published a large number of educational and Christian writings over the past forty-five years. Dr. Mary attributed her success in life to knowing her God-given purpose and choosing to do things God's way.

Dr. Mary met and married her husband, Elgin Lee Brown, Sr. on December 21, 1968. They welcomed their one and only child, a son, Elgin Lee Brown, Jr. on April 9, 1982.

She is preceded in death by her husband, mother, father and sisters, Doris Sue Williams and Ruby Elizabeth Williams, and brother-in-law Earl Conaway, Sr.

She leaves to cherish her memory her son, Elgin Lee Brown, Jr. (Jonell); three granddaughters: Elginae, Ja'Neyah, and E'Laysia; one grandson, E'Javion; Sisters: Annie Hue Hardin (Virgil), Ora Lee Thompson (Paul), Redell Ervin (Fred), Hazel Conaway, and Mildred Davis (Larry). As well as a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

God's Calling for A Woman
By: Mary A. Brown

There's a woman God's calling for
In these last and evil days.
A sanctified, dedicated, consecrated laborer
Who will do the things He says.

A woman who will cry aloud and spare not
Who will lift up her voice loud and bold.
One who will warn the people in this day and time
In a desperate effort to save men's soul.

God wants a woman who will live a holy life
So others may know His righteous ways.
He wants a clean and devoted woman
Who will be an example of the things she says.

God wants a woman who will walk up right
On Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday too
One who will speak the truth
On Friday, Saturday, Sunday and the whole week through.

God wants a woman who's not tossed to and fro
With everything that comes along.
One who will stand up for the right
When everybody else is going wrong.

God wants a woman whose words are few
And that's seasoned with grace.
A woman who's willing to pay the price
In order to win this Christian race.

God wants a praying, a cunning,
A mourning woman too.
He wants a Spirit-filled woman...
CAN THAT WOMAN BE YOU?
