Celebration Of Life

James Hayes Jr. was born October 17, 1949 in Little Rock, Arkansas to the union of James Hayes Sr. and Willie S. Hayes. James received his education in the Pine Bluff School System.

Upon completion of his education, James decided to serve his country and went on to join the United States Army. He served in Vietnam mastering the job of a Machine Operator. He maintained this position for ten years where he was later stationed at Ft. Sam Houston Base. James received an honorable discharge for a Job Well Done. James was known to be a devoted individual, great stepfather and grandfather. He loved his family dearly.

James met and united with the love of his life, Fannie Galloway. This union remained as one for forty five years until her demise. She was truly his special love.

James was proceeded in death by his wife, Fannie Galloway, father, James Hayes Sr., mother, Willie S. Hayes, stepsons, Jesse James Galloway, Anthony Galloway and Michael Galloway. He leaves to cherish his most precious memories his sister, Erma Lee Chapman, Arkansas; five children, Patricia Greenwood, San Antonio, Texas, Sheilia Dwiggin(Roy), Toni Galloway(Atamari), Billy Galloway and Faye Ballard(Ronald); thirty grandchildren; twenty-nine great grandchildren and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Words Of Comfort

Recessional

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Psalm23

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I am not here to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes are filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today.
While thinking of the many things we did not get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you.
And each time you think of me, I know that you will miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready, in heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life I'd always thought I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, so much yet to do,
It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving all of you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you, and maybe see you smile.
But then I fully realized that this could never be,
For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne,
He said, "This is eternity, and all I've promised you.
Today your life on earth is past, but here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, today will always last,
And since each day's the same way there's no longing for the past.
But you have been so faithful, so trusting and so true.
Though there were times you did some things
You knew you shouldn't do.
But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free.
So won't you take My hand and share my life with Me!
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.
