Hands I Love

Folded cold upon your breast the hands I loved are set for rest. Hands that fed my growing needs. Guiding hands that laid the seeds for daily tasks that crowned each day, hands that taught my hands to pray. Timeworn hands I loved so much with hope and healing in their touch. Hands that held me safe and tight against the terrors of the night. Oh so gentle when I wept so strong, so watchful when I slept. Angels, as you soar and sing accept, I pray, my offering, open wide Heaven's doors and gently take her hands in yours.

Life's Journey

Ava Loretta Johnson was born February 18, 1956 in San Antonio, Texas to Frankie Mae Brownlow-Johnson and James Douglas Johnson. She accepted Christ at a young age at the Refuge Church Of Our Lord under the leadership of Rev. Elfreddie Lee. Ava was baptized in Jesus Name by her grandfather, Rev. Leslie Brownlow.

Ava received her formal education in the San Antonio Public School System and went on to graduate from Healy Murphy School. Ava furthered her education attending Girls Nursing School, where she learned the medical skills of caring for those in need. Following her completion of nursing school, Ava entered the workforce and was employed for Home Health Care Agencies, caring for others with integrity and respect. She would go 1000 miles to make sure they felt loved and made her name pass with a surpass impression. She was known to be very sweet, loving and caring. She cared for a couple for years and later the husband passed, but she continued to care for the wife because that was her calling. Along the way Ava was also employed for DPT Laboratories, Borden's Milk and Gaylord Container.

Ava loved life and was an avid Bingo Player. Ava and her network of Bingo friends were dedicated and supported one another. She loved to cook and she made the best fried chicken and enchiladas. When Ava cooked everyone in the neighborhood ate. She was truly loved and will forever live in our hearts.

Ava was preceded in death her mother, Frankie Johnson, father, James Douglas Johnson, brother, Leslie Roland City and two sisters, Cynthia Johnson and Shelia Kay Johnson. She leaves to cherish her wonderful legacy her loving son, Brandon Johnson; a good-hearted grandson, Jaylan; two brothers, Mykal Johnson and James (Big Jim) Johnson; niece, Shamika Johnson Evans and a host of other loving family members and friends.

Recessional

If I should go tomorrow
It would never be goodbye,
For I have left my heart with you,
So don't you ever cry.
The love that's deep within me,
Shall reach you from the stars,
You'll feel it from the heavens,
And it will heal the scars.
