God Saw You

God saw you were getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
He wrapped his arms around you
And whispered come to me.
You didn't deserve what you went through
So He gave you rest.
God's garden must be beautiful.
He only takes the best
And when I saw you sleeping so peaceful
And free from pain.
I could not wish you back to suffer that again.

Life's Journey

Bishop Mack Thomas, Jr. was born June 10, 1930 to M. C. and Allie Byrd McKenzie. Mack was the oldest of ten children. He received his education in the Seguin Public School System.

Following his high school years, Mack went on to join the United States Army, where he served his country for two years. Mack fought in the Korean War, receiving commendations such as: the Korean Service Medal W/1 Bronze Star and the United Nations Service Medal.

Bishop Mack Thomas, Jr. married the love of his life, Ada Mae Daniels in 1984 and this union remained as one until his passing. In 1990 Bishop Mack Thomas, Jr. and his wife relocated to Killeen, Texas to Pastor the Christ Gospel Apostolic Church, where he served until his health began to fail. We loved him but God Loved Him Best.

Bishop Mack Thomas, Jr. was preceded in death his parents M. C. and Allie Byrd McKenzie, four sisters and two brothers. He leaves to mourn his death his wife, Ada Mae Thomas; two sisters, one brother and a host of many family members and friends.

A loved one from us is gone,
A voice we love is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
Which can never be filled

Benediction

Pastor Mark E. Kirkland

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Psalm23
