Life's Journey

Gladys Marie Curtiss Gant was born to Eloise Curtiss and Mary Henry on March 24, 1922, in Gonzales County, Texas. Gladys received her formal education attending the public school system at Little Zion Rural Community in Hardwood, Texas.

Gladys spent most of her adult life in Houston, Texas where she entered the workforce doing Domestic work and she worked as a Nurse's Aide. Gladys met and married Wilmer Gant in the late 1940's and in the 1950's she and Wilmer lived in Tomball, Texas for a brief time. They later relocated back to Houston, Texas. No children were born to this union but, she was blessed with one stepdaughter. Wilmer and Gladys were married 28yrs until his passing in 1977. Gladys was the rock for her family in raising her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

In 1996, Gladys moved to Gonzales, Texas to help care for her mother. While in Gonzales, she united with Mt. Pilgrim Missionary Baptist Church and attended faithfully under the pastorage of Rev. Charles Roaches. Gladys also endured and survived the October flood of 1998. She remained in Gonzales until 2004, then returned to Houston where she resided with her grandchildren.

In November 2014, Gladys became a resident of Silver Tree Nursing and Rehabilitation in Schertz, Texas. She enjoyed and loved a variety of activities especially, playing bingo and going to Golden Coral. With God's Grace and Mercy, she was a Covid 19 survivor. Recently, in March of 2022, Gladys was blessed and celebrated her 100th birthday with three parties. To God Be The Glory!

Gladys was preceded in death by her parents, grandparents, Mack Henry, Mandy Henry, one brother, Robert McVea, stepdaughter, Dora Randall and granddaughter, Georgiane Lynette Randall. She leaves to cherish her memory one sister, Alberta Miller (Johnnie) of Schertz, Texas; two grandchildren, Bennie Gant (Adrian) and Terrie Randall; twelve great grandchildren and fourteen great-great grandchildren all of Houston, Texas; one nephew, Clifford Glass (Carolyn) of Schertz, Texas; one niece, Jeanette McVea Conquest (James) of Gonzales, Texas and a host of loving family and friends.
