Obituary

As the song says, I moved from my old house, and I moved from my old friends; and I moved from my old way of life. Thank God I moved out to a brand-new place of rest.

Paul Lloyd Warren, the only child of the late Mr. Paul & Mrs. Igean Rothwell Warren, answered the call of God on July 3, 2022.

Paul accepted Christ at an early age in New York and was educated in the New York City public school district. Paul completed his education at the Monroe James Jewish High School. Instead of going to college, Paul enlisted in the United States Air Force. While in the Air Force, he held two career fields, Maintenance, and Air Police. Paul was an expert in marksmanship, hence, their desire for him to become part of the Air Police. Paul served his country for over 20 years, retiring in 1975 from Kelly Air Force Base; he received many awards and citations.

Paul enjoyed working and continued to work while attending the New Jersey Police Academy, as a commissioned security guard. Upon graduation, Paul became a civilian police officer. Paul also was an entrepreneur, owning and operating Warren's Pilot Car Service.

In November 2001, Paul met the love of his life, Lillian, at the Bexar County Tax Office. After a short engagement, Paul and Lillian were married in March of 2002 by the late Bishop Sarah F. Davis, who was the pastor of Bethel A.M.. Church at the time. Paul loved Lillian and knew if he wanted to keep her, he needed a church home. Paul joined Bethel and quickly became integrated into the work of the church. Paul was a member of the Sons of Allen, Usher Board No. 1, and The Bethel Aires. Paul was also a student of the Word; he attended Church School regularly until his health failed him.

Paul thoroughly enjoyed his life; he obtained an FCC License to operate the H.A.M. radio. Paul enjoyed remote control helicopters, flying kites, coloring (art in general), and disc jockeying. He had a passion for music after retiring and played music at the Officer's Club. Paul also LOVED sweets, particularly cookies and pineapple ice cream.

Paul was preceded in death by his mother, Mrs. Igean Rothwell Warren, his father, Mr. Paul Warren, and his mother-in-love, Mrs. Gussie Louise Triche.

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife of 20 years, Lillian Ruth Warren – his rib. Daughter and caregiver, Irma J. Trottie-Dent (Sherwin), Sons, Louis Trottie (Hilda) of North Carolina; David Trottie (Cintrella) of New York; and brother-in-law, Rev. Wilmer Brown (Hulen) of Georgia. Grandchildren, Mareeshanette (Reesha) Vines (Damon), La'Dreaka White (Maurice), Jasmine Young, Anubiya Trottie, and McKenna Trottie. Great-grandchildren, Vyctor Vines, Cameron Young, Xavier Vines (god-son), Morgan White, Olivia Vines, Macen McKnight, Acacia Young, Myaire McKnight. Honorary son, Darnell Tucker.

Paul Lloyd Warren will forever be missed by a host of other family and friends.

The Greatest Hero

*This world has many heroes, some you'd know by name.
They give their best at what they do, so they deserve their fame.*

*But among all of the heroes tis world has ever had,
There is not one admired more than the guy that I call PaPa.*

*Perhaps not like the others, he doesn't look for praise.
He heroic in his special way, in his thoughtful caring ways.*

*Perhaps he's not as famous as the others that you see.
But he's everything and so much more that heroes ought to be.*

He keeps his word, its good as gold, on this you can depend.

He's honest and he's loyal too he's also a true friend.

When I hear about a hero, and the great thigs they have done,

It reminds me of my PaPa, he is the greatest one.....

*We Love You PaPa,
Moe, La'Dreaka & Morgan*

Acknowledgement

We would like to take this time to thank all of you for your acts of kindness and love given to us. Many of you prayed and came by the house; others sent cards, flowers, food and held our hands during this challenging time. All these acts gave us strength and comfort. We know with our faith and your prayers that tomorrow will be better.
