Life's Journey

Ellina Roberts was born on September 30, 1963, to Fannie Mae Jackson and Vernon Brown in San Antonio, Texas. She confessed her belief in her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ at an early age. She was raised on the Eastside of San Antonio, Texas and received her formal education in the San Antonio Independent School District, graduating from Sam Houston High School. After high school, she attended Houston Tillotson in Austin, TX and later went on to graduate from St. Phillips College with an Associates of Arts and from Wayland Baptist University with her Bachelor of Business Administration.

Ellina was united in holy matrimony to Curtis Roberts on July 19, 1985. This union remained together until December 3, 2003. To this union, they were blessed with two handsome sons Quenton and Briant Roberts.

Ellina was blessed with a giving heart and loving spirit. She was a woman of many talents and skills and began working at an early age of 14. Majority of her working career was spent at Frost Bank as a Team Lead in Central Adjustments for 32 years. Ellina also enjoyed volunteering at Calvary Baptist Church and the Taste of New Orleans.

Ellina was a part of Calvary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Kevin L. Nelson. She enjoyed working in the church and was a part of several ministries until she became ill.

Ellina loved her family more than anything. She enjoyed hosting family gatherings, cooking and being a food critic. Some of her fondest memories include being around family and friends, traveling, and spending time with her grandson after school.

Ellina is preceded in death by her father, Vernon Brown. She is survived by her mother, Fannie Mae Jackson, her sons, Quenton and Briant Roberts (Raquel); her sisters, Alga Burleson and Wanda Page; nephews, Bobby Burleson and Alan Page (Ashlyn); grandchildren, Cassius Roberts and Ramayia Marshall; and a host of great nieces, nephews and other loving relatives and friends.

Precious Memories

Mom

I still see your face before me
Your voice I long to hear...

I miss and love you dearly,
God knows, I wish, you were here.

Tears fall freely from my eyes,
Like a river, filled with grief.
My only comfort now, is that,
From pain, you've found relief.

Granny

There was magic in your touch
And sunshine in your smile
There was love in everything you did to make our lives worthwhile
I promise to make you proud my whole life through

Granny,

I will always love and cherish you.
