Obituary

William Daniel Brown was born October 31, 1937 to Thomas F. Brown, Sr. and Betty Lindsey-Brown in San Antonio, Texas. William received his education at W. T. Grant Elementary School in San Antonio, Texas. He attended Mt. Mariah Baptist Church as a child in Poth, Texas under the leadership of the late Rev. Jessie Lee. His father, mother, two brothers, one sister, and one son proceed him in death.

At the tender age of nineteen, William became a United States Marine and served three years as a Combat Engineer. Upon completion of his military contract, William relocated to Fresno California and became a truck driver for Reliable Moving and Storage, Inc. for seventeen years. William was member of St. Joseph Missionary Baptist Church (Fresno, Ca) where he served on the deacon board, served his community for over thirty years as a sober living coach for King of Kings Substance Abuse programs, and successfully completed over 1,000 volunteer hours for his local V. A. hospital. In 2020 he relocated to Houston Tx with me and rededicated his life to Christ on June 20, 2021 at Mt. Mariah church.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory, his son, Daniel Brown from his first wife, his daughter, Monica Battle (Steven "Mike") from his second wife, three grandchildren; Nnena Battle, Ahnela Battle, Kailani Battle, and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

*If I should go tomorrow
It would never be goodbye,
For I have left my heart with you,
So don't you ever cry.
The love that's deep within me,
Shall reach you from the stars,
You'll feel it from the heavens,
And it will heal the scars.*
