We Miss You Ma Dukes

Our minds know that you are in a better place, but our hearts feel torn. We know the place we call Heaven is a tower of peace, love, and no pain. We understand, we just wish we can explain it to our hearts. It's just an empty space without you. We grieve and pained by your physical absence. We love you and always will hold you deep in our hearts, nothing can ever feel that void. You are and always will be our angel and your presence will truly be missed. You were the best mother, grandmother, friend, aunt, and cousin. God has gained someone very special. You earned your honorary wings while here on earth. We all have memories that we will hold on to and put a smile on our face until our ending days. Until we meet again.

Love Ashely, JD, & your Stepchildren

Reflection Of Life

Lela Mae Wilson was born March 18, 1960 to Carl Brooks and Yourdell Morrison in San Antonio, Texas. She received her formal education in the San Antonio Independent School District attending Thomas Jefferson High School.

Following her high school years, Lela entered the workforce and was employed at the Marriott Hotel in Housekeeping. Lela later began working in Dietary for the Northeast Independent School District. She enjoyed life, playing Billiards in and out of leagues, dancing, cooking, and spending time with her family and friends. She was the life of the party and was a Dollar Tree fanatic when she could not make it to Buc-ee's.

Lela met and united in matrimony to her late husband, Caste Rodarte on August 5th, 1978. This union remained as one until her husband's demise. Lela went on to marry J. D. Wilson. Lela was a beautiful person with a beautiful heart. We will truly miss Lela but God Loved Her Best.

Lela is preceded in death by her husband Caste Rodarte, her parents, Yordell Mitchell-Thomas and Carl Brooks, her brothers, Michael Brooks, Johnny Mitchell and her sister, Patricia Mitchell. She leaves to cherish her memory her daughters, Stephanie Ralston (Tim), Latrice Radarte Triplett (Clem) and Ashley Mitchell; grandchildren, Myeisha, Davonte, Clem Caste, Jazmine, Caprice, Jalieyah, and Ja'Zairah; sisters, Betty Bernice (Mike), Carolyn (Eric) and Tammy; brothers, Charles Mitchell, and Carl Mitchell; three great granddaughters and a host of family and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid for me. I took His hand when I heard him call I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss ah yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee God wanted me now; He set me free.
