God Took You Home

In Tears we saw you sinking and watched you fade away. Our hearts were almost broken we wanted you to stay. But when we saw you sleeping so peaceful, so free from pain. How could we wish you back with us to suffer that again. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone for part of us went with you. The day God took you Home.

Life's Journey

Michael Anthony Luckey was born April 20, 1964 to Rosa Luckey and stepfather Charles Murray in Elizabeth Town, Kentucky. Michael received his education attending Sam Houston High School located in San Antonio, Texas where he played Football.

Michael continued his education attending St. Philips Community College where he studied Greek Mythology. Michael entered the workforce working for several employers such as Clean Text, Best Care Provider Services, and Rocky Moving Company. Michael had a good heart and loved helping people whenever he could. He loved to cook, listen to music, making C.D.'s, tapes, shooting pool, and he had a passion for dancing, winning several dance contests.

Michael married the love of his life, Ethel (Faye) Smith on April 13, 2020. He was a loving person and will be truly missed by all.

Michael was preceded in death by his mother, Rosa Luckey, stepfather, Charles Murray, grandmother, Ruthie Martin, aunt, Viola and uncle, Se'arcy. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife Ethel (Faye) Luckey; sister, Mahlona R. Murray; son, Bryan, Sade Michael, Shawanda; aunt, Stephania Martin along with his soul brothers, Bobby Craig, Vincent Hullaby and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
