*For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.
I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day:
and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
II Timothy 4:6-8*

Life's Journey

Donovan Gordan Edwards was born on October sixteenth, nineteen seventy-two to Kenneth Vernon Edwards and Debra Eileen Gordon. Donovan received his elementary education in the San Antonio Public School System. Donovan and his family later relocated to Houston, Texas where he continued to receive his education at Ollie Middle School and Elsie High School, where he graduated.

Donovan accepted Christ at an early age at Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Houston, Texas. He was known to be a loving person and had a nostalgia for music. Donovan was loved dearly by his family.

Donovan was preceded in death by his mother, Debra Eileen Edwards, both grandfathers and grandmothers, James Gordon, Jr., Mary Gordon, Vernon Edwards and Ruby Edwards and two uncles, Robert Edwards and Michael Edwards. He leaves to cherish his memory his father, Kenneth Edwards; stepmother, Barbara Edwards; two loving aunts, Dorean Michell and Jessie Mae Moore of Houston, Texas; three loving uncles, James Gordon III, Curtis Moore of Houston, Texas and Walter "Scott" Edwards; many cousins, Lindsay Landon of San Antonio, Texas and a host of friends and family who loved Donovan dearly.

God Saw You

God saw you were getting tired

And a cure was not to be.

He wrapped his arms around you

And whispered come to me.

You didn't deserve what you went through

So He gave you rest.

God's garden must be beautiful.

He only takes the best

And when I saw you sleeping so peaceful

And free from pain.

I could not wish you back to suffer that again.
