Housekeeper Finds Lost Ring

Margaret Washington, Housekeeper in the Nursery at the Robert B. Green Hospital, recently helped to avert a potentially anguishing situation for the mother of a newborn child.

The scenario of Washington's rescue goes like this:

The mother, Rosa Garcia, whose baby was just about to be discharged from the Nursery, had taken off her wedding band so that she could wash her hands to handle her infant.

Garcia forgot to put the ring back on and, in her excitement to get home, left with her baby without the ring.

Fortunately, Washington found the wedding band and reported the find to the head nurse; before Mrs. Garcia even realized she was missing the ring a call was placed to her telling her of the find.

Washington's deed was heralded by Doris Thomas, R.N. in the Nursery, who wished to give some type of recognition for an act of honesty.

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, Dear Ones
All's so happy, all's so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief are over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder why I so calmly
Trode the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.*

*And He came Himself to meet me
On the way so hard to tread.
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust Our Father's Will.*

*There is work still waiting for you.
So you must not idle stand:
Do your work while life remaineth
You shall rest in Jesus' land.*

*When that work is all completed.
He will gently call you home.
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!*
