

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.

I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.

Life's Journey

Robert David Boulden was born February 18, 1946 in San Antonio, Texas to Anna Dorothy Free. "R.D.", as he was affectionately called by friend and family, received his education in the San Antonio Independent School District attending Sojourner Truth Public School. Robert was reared in the Kenwood area, where he was raised by his grandmother Mary Ann Free.

Robert was known to be very outgoing and devoted despite his serious medical illnesses. He showed his courage in facing life challenges with a smile. Despite the pain, Robert came out a hero and stayed strong until the end. Robert had a passion for cars and motorcycles at a very young age which he carried with him until he became ill.

R. D. married the love of his life Deborah Eleanor Boulden (Pyles), on February 14, 1994. This union remained as one until his wife's demise. R. D. enjoyed life as a free spirit and will be truly missed by all.

R. D. leaves to cherish his memory his daughter, Stephanie L. Cox (Free) and son in Law, Gary Duane Cox Sr.; granddaughter, Samantha Nicole Free, two stepchildren, Antoinette and Tamika Lakey and a host of family and friends.

New Testament - "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God^[a]; believe also in me. ² My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? ³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. ⁴ You know the way to the place where I am going." ⁵ Thomas said to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going, so how can we know the way?" ⁶ Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. John 14:1-6
