

A Child To Lend

I'll lend you for a little time
A child of mine, He said.
For you to love the while he lives,
And mourn for when he's dead.
It may be six or seven years,
Or twenty-two or twenty-nine.
But will you, till I call him back,
Take care of him for Me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden you,
And should his stay be brief.
You'll have his lovely memories,
As solace for your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay,
Since all from earth return.
But there are lessons taught down there,
I want this child to learn.
I've looked the wide world over,
In search for teachers true.
And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes,
I have selected you.
Now will you give him all your love,
Nor think the labour vain.
Nor hate me when I come
To take him home again?
I fancied that I heard them say,
'Dear Lord, Thy will be done!'
For all the joys Thy child shall bring,
The risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness,
We'll love him while we may,
And for the happiness we've known,
Forever grateful stay.
But should the angels call for him,
Much sooner than we've planned.
We'll brave the bitter grief that comes,
And try to understand.

Reflection Of Life

Jacoy Roy Grant was born October 31, 1992 to Robert Earl Grant and Tarsha Renee Scruggs in San Antonio, Texas. Jacoy received his formal education in the Northeast Independent School District attending Madison High School. He went on to finish his education attending the Gary Job Corp in San Marcos, Texas in 2011.

Jacoy entered the workforce at the age of seventeen. He was a hard and dedicated employee wherever he was employed. He was currently employed at Levy Company INC. since 2019. Jacoy always liked to dress nice and he loved the finer things in life. He enjoyed family get togethers and hanging out with close friends. Jacoy was quite the gamer with his love for Dragon Ball Z. Jacoy loved being a father to his two daughters, Jirah and Asiyah. They were the joy of his life. He worked to provide a better life for his daughters like every other fathers dream of. Jacoy had a big heart, very loving, giving, caring, and had a smile that could light up any room. Jacoy did not mind helping anyone in need. He will truly be missed by all.

Jacoy leaves to cherish his memory his daughters, Jirah and Asiyah; his mother, Tarsha R. Scruggs; father, Robert E. Grant Sr; sisters, Dezmerae Q. Grant, Alanna R. Grant and Anaiah S. Grant; brothers, Robert E. Grant Jr., Noah R. Grant, D’Ante Logan, Trevante Warren Sr.; Troy Rex and Nadeem R. El-Amin; grandmother, Ruby Newsome; grandfather, Allen Scruggs and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other loving family members and close friends.

“In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven. Matthew 5:16

When I Come To The End Of The Road

When I come to the end of my road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free
Miss me a little but not for too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love/friendship that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone
It’s all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me, but let me go.
