Life's Journey

Robert Gerald Beasley was born on July 12, 1952 to Erma Mae Beasley. He was reared by his mother Erma and stepfather, Tommy Thompson. Robert received his formal education in the public school system.

Robert lived life on his own terms. He had a free spirit and spent time when permitted with family and friends. His best qualities were his handwriting, it was so beautiful, and his art. Robert fathered two children Keath White and Sasha Strong. He was loved by many and will be missed.

Robert was preceded in death his mother, Erma Mae Beasley and stepfather, Tommy Thompson, two brothers, Smiley (Darrell) and Damon and baby sister, Pinkey (Ada). He leaves to cherish his memories his two children, Keath White and Sasha Strong; four sisters, Renae, Denise, Connie Ann, and Inez (Poopie); grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss oh yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee God wanted me now; He set me free.
