I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee God wanted me now; He set me free.

Life's Journey

Gladys Jean Webb was born on March 23, 1940 to the late Charles Webb and Peggy Huff Webb in Caldwell, Texas. She went on to receive and complete her formal education.

Following her school years, Gladys went on to enter the workforce. She was employed for the United States Postal Services, where she was a dedicated employee, retiring after twenty years of service. Gladys loved to walk, read and going on long country rides. Gladys lived and full life and had a free spirit. She was a loving, beautiful person with a big heart. Gladys will truly be missed.

Gladys was proceeded in death by her parents, Charles and Peggy Webb. She leaves to cherish her memory her devoted caregiver/play daughter, Novela Banks of San Antonio, Texas, several cousins' other relatives and friends.

"In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven."

Matthew 5:16
