Family Acknowledgment

Perhaps you stopped by to say hello or called us on the phone.
Maybe you visited for a while, to keep us from being alone.
You may have sent flowers or a card to show you cared.
Possibly you didn't come at all but remembered us in prayer.
Whatever kindness extended in our bereavement is accepted
With a sincere gratitude and thanks that's everlasting.

Reflections Of Life

Jerry Lynn Davis was born October 21, 1953 to Olden Doug Jackson and Eva Mae Davis in Minden, Louisiana. At the age of five, Jerry was raised by his stepfather Willie D. Rowe Sr. who became his father, a man who loved him, taught him, and gave him life skills. He received his formal education attending Webster High School located in Minden and graduating, May 25, 1971.

Upon graduation, Jerry had a desire to serve his country and joined the United States Navy. His served as Seaman on the ship. While in the military, Jerry also attended Aviation Fleet Preparatory School. Upon completing his military duties, Jerry received the National Defense Service Medal and the Vietnam Service Medal. He then began serving in the Navy Reserves in San Diego, California. Jerry soon entered the workforce and was employed for Arrow Dynamics in San Diego, where he was employed for many years.

Jerry later relocated to San Antonio, Texas. His life changed and he needed “The Savior”. He met a man name Bishop Donny Banks and a woman name Prophetess Jackie Banks who he referred to as his “Spiritual Parents” at the Victory Gospel Chapel Of San Antonio. Jerry was disciplined and taught by them through the spirit of God and became a true man of God and a Servant Leader. Through the wisdom the Lord gave him he taught many on how to walk with Jesus. In 1998 Jerry was licensed as a Minister and a year later he became an Elder in the church, years later to become Senior Presbyter in Victory Gospel Chapel.

In December of 1999, Elder Jerry married his Queen for life, Yvette Elizabeth Davis. They shared a beautiful union together for twenty-three years. She was a woman who stood by him until his very last breath. They were partners in Ministry. Elder Jerry was a Builder and a Contractor, owning and operating, Davis Contracting, in the city of San Antonio. He loved people, he loved fishing with his brother-in-law, Charlie and he loved and cherished his only grandson, Kevonte.

Special Words Of Love

*His crown will be shown
And his fruitful and precious life will be known.*

He won many, touched plenty.

Taught with the cause.

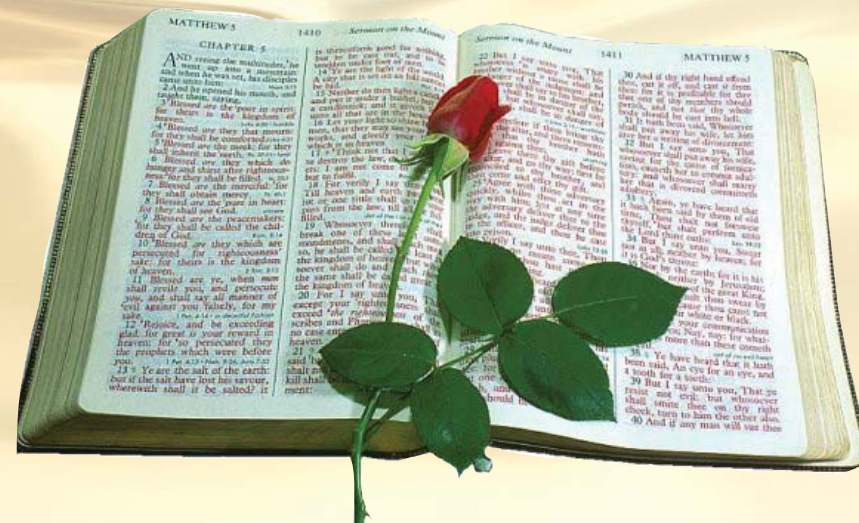

He ran his race

Each day with grace.

He finished his course, his report says

He completed His call.

By: Prophetess Jackie Banks

Elder Jerry loved Jesus. He loved talking and listening to Him. He studied the Word of God with diligence and it became his life. He served Bishop Banks faithfully and when he went onto Glory, Elder became ever closer to Prophetess Jackie Banks, his spiritual mother, who he cherished in his heart. This man of God was “Honorable.”

Elder Jerry was proceeded in death by his sister, Barbara Rowe-Bowie (Charles Sr.) and his brother, Charles Daniel Rowe (Debra). He is survived by his wife, Yvette Davis; daughters, Kameelah Davis, San Antonio, Texas and Aquanetta Mathews, Schertz, Texas; siblings, Beverly Davis Winzer (Dr. Charlie), Carolyn Rowe Battley (Marvin), Shreveport, Louisiana, Theresa Rowe Raby (Earnest Sr.), Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Willie Rowe Jr., Decator, Georgia and Annie Mae Rowe, Baton Rouge, Louisiana; grandson, Kevonte Griffith (Javier); granddaughters, Johnae Cleveland, Jada Cleveland, San Antonio, Texas and Kameshia Bateman, Houston, Texas; one great granddaughter, one great grandson and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving family and friends.
