Reflection Of Life

LaRon Keith Agent Powell was born May 8, 1960 to Arthur Lee Powell Sr. and Homerzell Agent Powell in San Angelo, Texas. The family later relocated to San Antonio, Texas making this their home. LaRon received his education in the San Antonio Independent School District attending Highlands High School. He excelled in all sports, football, basketball, track and boxing. His brothers always wanted to model his athleticism.

Throughout LaRon's adult life he thought being a dad was the greatest blessing in the world, until he became a Papa. He took great pride in being the one who saves the day. A true superhero in his grandchildren's eyes. He enjoyed talking on the phone with his oldest granddaughter, almost daily and making it his mission to spoil her every chance he got. Finding out he was going to be a Papa to, yet another granddaughter made his life complete. LaRon really enjoyed cutting hair and always dreamed of opening his own barber shop one day with his daughters and best friend. He talked about that every chance he got. He remained a sports fan throughout his life. LaRon will truly be missed by his family and friends. It was all about family with him. We wish we had more time with him.

LaRon is preceded in death by his mother, Homerzell Powell and his father, Arthur Lee Powell, Sr. He leaves to cherish his memory his daughters, Tiffany and Autumn; brothers, Arthur Lee Powell Jr., Carl Powell, and Bertram Powell; grandchildren, McKinley, Bentley Jade, Kesion, Spencer, Devasion, LaRon and a host of loving cousins, other loving family members and friends.
