Final Message

On his transiting day his mother, Irene was there and his sister, Stephanie was there, playing "Grateful By: Hezekiah Walker" while he was having a stroke. Stephanie then asked Larry if he was grateful, and he replied "Yes" and he peacefully slept into a coma. Larry was unresponsive for hours until his Aunt Mary prayed the Lord's Prayer, the 23rd Psalms and shortly after he was awake again with full instructions. He let everyone know that he was strong and told us all to be strong. Larry mouthed in words and body language to remove the life support so he could now go home with the lord. Because of God's grace covering him, Larry endured no pain, zero suffering, and he looked so good and seemed as if nothing was wrong. Larry specifically asked for Tyrone and Lynel, Aunt Mary, Aunt Precious, and Uncle Eural. Larry ordered to have his granddaughter RiRi picked up from school and be brought to the hospital, where he laughed and played with his granddaughter for the last time. His mother and sisters were at his bedside, holding his hand, kissing him, confided in him through his transition. Larry was strong, had no fear in his eyes, no hard struggle, and when his heart stopped instead of tears it was an instant Hallelujah praise to God. For you could clearly see God's grace and mercy at work. My brother passed looking like the true king that he is. I believe God said "Well Done" Larry. God's blessed Larry as he did Lazarus back in the biblical days, raising him from death. God's help was indeed present. Lazarus means God will help and for Larry Goode Jr. he rose from the dead a few times over. Now that was truly God's Helped Indeed.

Larry's message was to Be Strong.

Family Acknowledgment

Perhaps you stopped by to say hello or called us on the phone. Maybe you visited for a while, to keep us from being alone. You may have sent flowers or a card to show you cared: Possibly you didn't come at all! But remembered us in prayer. Whatever kindness extended in our bereavement is accepted with a sincere gratitude.

Special Thanks

Larry was blessed with a special friend Michelle Taylor. She brought joy and light into his life when it was filled with darkness and grief. She spoiled him, loved him, and cared for him without instruction. She brought his favorite foods, whispered sweet things into his ear, his eyes followed her every move. He Was Thankful.
