

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I am not here to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes are filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today.
While thinking of the many things we did not get to say.
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you.
And each time you think of me, I know that you will miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready, in heaven far above,
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye,
For all my life I'd always thought I didn't want to die.
I had so much to live for, so much yet to do,
It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving all of you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you, and maybe see you smile.
But then I fully realized that this could never be,
For emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me
From His great golden throne,
He said, "This is eternity, and all I've promised you.
Today your life on earth is past, but here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, today will always last,
And since each day's the same way there's no longing for the past.
But you have been so faithful, so trusting and so true.
Though there were times you did some things
You knew you shouldn't do.
But you have been forgiven and now at last you're free.
So won't you take My hand and share my life with Me!
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here, in your heart.

Life's Journey

Charles Wesley Fuller, Sr. was born on May 10, 1957 to the late Cleo Fuller and Bernice Duncan-Fuller. He received his education in the San Antonio Independent School District attending Thomas Jefferson High School. Charles accepted Christ at an early age at West End Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Kimple.

Charles married his high school sweetheart, Dorothy Fay Brown on September 20, 1975 and together they spent forty-seven amazing years together. Charles loved and cared for his family. He was a part of the workforce and was employed for The Fountain Head as a Pool Technician for twenty plus years. He enjoyed playing a variety of sports like basketball, football, and baseball. Charles also had many other talents such as, playing the bass guitar and he also played the air guitar. Charles was not a big fan of meat, not even a hot dog. However, you could catch him eating a bean and cheese taco with light beans or have him a cheese enchilada plate waiting along with a Route 44 cup of ice. Charles was full of life and truly adored his family.

Charles was preceded in death by his parents, Cleo and Bernice Fuller. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Dorothy Fay Fuller; two brothers, Robert and Raymond Fuller (Vanessa); four children, Charles Jr., Carl Sr. (Stephanie), Pamela (Diallo), and Latisha Fuller (Vincent); three sons he raised as his own, Victor Jr., Daniel and David Brown; seventeen grandkids, Charles, Ieshia, Kaivon, Alvin, Alisha, Essence, Calvin, Ar'Rlyon, Emauni, Tati, Carl Jr., Keionna, ReRe, Keira, Carlina, Dede, and Lele; seventeen great grandchildren, Naula, Kya'Yonni, Romello, Rochelle, Ronicha, Raegan, Adonis, Ty'Ana, David Jr., Victor Jr., India, Delaney, Domiquie, Aylana, Taleah, Royalty, and Anastasia; sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews and a host of other family and friends.
