Obituary

Armando C. Olivo was born in Mexico on September 12, 1940 to Armando C. Olivo and Helana Olivo.

Armando received his education in Mexico where he was born.

Armando entered employment as a Torch Cutter at Southern Steel Company. He enjoyed fishing, western movies, war movies and action movies.

Armando accepted Christ at an early age and was a part of the Catholic church.

Armando married the love of his life Irma G. Olivo and they remained as one until her passing.

Armando was preceded in death by his wife, Irma G. Olivo. He leaves to cherish his memory a host of family, and friends.

God Saw You

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.
Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

In Tears

In Tears we saw you sinking
And watched you fade away
Our hearts were almost broken
We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping
So peaceful, free from pain
How could we wish you back with us
To suffer that again.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God took you Home.
