Weep Not For Me

*Weep not for me, but be content.
I was not yours, but only lent.
Please dry those tears and weep no more.
My soul has only gone before.
There's a great reward, I've done my work.
I've labored long, I've sung my song.
Now this race of life is run.
His crown awaits me at the setting sun.
Weep not for me, but be content
I was not yours, but only lent.*

Obituary

James Albert Lovings, Jr. was born June 3, 1945, age 77, he passed away unexpectedly on October 23, 2022 in San Antonio, Texas. He was given the nickname "Poppa" by a first cousin during his early childhood. This epithet has followed him throughout his life.

He was born to the parentage of James Albert Lovings, Sr., who preceded him in death and Marie Lovings in San Antonio Texas. He attended the public schools in San Antonio and graduated from Brackenridge High School in 1964.

His employment spans several assignments to include Brooks AFB-Motor Pool, The Willows Child Development Center, Bexar County Detention Center, the Salvation Army and Private Duty Security.

On August 22, 1964, James was united in Holy Matrimony to Jacquelyn Sims. To this union, two children were born, Renee Taylor and James Albert Lovings III. In later years, he married Mary Cullins with a stepdaughter, Sonia Cullins. This union remained as one until his passing.

James was a sports enthusiast and upon his retirement, spent time enjoying his favorite past times, which included various activities such as Darts, Baseball, Basketball, and Football. He was an avid competitor and excelled at these activities respectively.

He is survived by his wife Mary Lovings; his loving mother, Marie Lovings, children, Renee (Harley), James Albert Lovings III (Mari); brother, Cedell A. Lovings Sr. (Sandra); grandson, Traevon Taylor; grand-daughter, Tori Taylor; stepdaughter, Sonia Cullins and step grandson, Robert Clutter and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

The memory of James (Poppa) will remain in the hearts and minds of those who knew him.
