Obituary

Robert E. Jackson was born May 31, 1967 in San Antonio, Texas to the late Earl Jackson and Frankie Mackie. Robert received his formal education in the San Antonio Independent School District attending Fox Tech High School. Robert struggled in his senior year of high school because he had to care for his sick grandmother and push to graduate, but he did it. He continued his education attending St. Phillips Community College and ITT Tech located in San Antonio.

Robert accepted Christ after the loss of his grandmother who raised him. He began his membership at Chosen Generation Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Nathaniel and Lemelle Taylor. He was an active member between the years of 2010-2013 where he served on the Usher Board, cooked and served his favorite meals (Lasagna and BBQ) to the church.

Robert entered the workforce and was employed for employers such as, Lee's Auto Shop and Fresh from Texas. Robert had a passion for technology as well as automobiles. His family and friends could always count on him to repair a TV, radio, or even do a brake job. He was well rounded and very caring. Robert loved spending time with his family and having long discussions about the changes made in San Antonio with the old buildings and street names. He dealt with a traumatic experience involving his children and wanted to do anything he could to make it up to them. Robert loved music and he loved to dress with nice shoes and hats to match. Robert was always an early riser and went to bed early. His grandmother taught him bad things happen after midnight. He had a lot of love in his heart and always treated people with respect. Robert married the love of his life Cora Lackey-Jackson. Cora was always there even until the last.

Robert was proceeded in death by his grandmother; grandfather, Mozell Jackson-Talley (Prince); father, Earl Jackson; mother Frankie Mackie; Uncle Gene Boy. He leaves to cherish his memory two daughters, Faith Hope Love; Dashaun Jackson and a host of family and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee God wanted me now;
He set me free.

Special Words

Be with someone who makes adventures out of late-night trips to the grocery store.
Be with someone who mindlessly reaches over for your hand while they drive.
Be with someone who can't fall sleep without hearing your sleepy "good night"
Be with someone who brightens your Monday and motivates you to do better.
Be with someone who makes the stars seem to shine little brighter.
Your Wife, Cora
