Life's Journey

Anthony Ravon Patton was born April 10, 1961 in Lawton, Oklahoma to the late Cornelius Patton and Elizabeth Haynes Patton. Anthony received his formal education in the San Antonio Independent School District. He later entered the Northeast Independent School District, graduating from Roosevelt High School. Anthony accepted Christ at an early age and had no problem telling others that God was the head of his life.

Upon graduation from high school Anthony joined the United States Navy serving his country for four years. Following the completion of his military service, Anthony began a long career in Culinary Arts. He was employed for The Inn At Los Patios for over thirty years as the supervisor. Anthony was an extraordinary cook and took great pride in serving the residents at The Inn At Los Patios. Over the course of his career, he has earned several awards for his culinary skills, although a quiet and unassuming man. Anthony had a real zest for life. He was an avid sports fan, devoted deer hunter, and a self-proclaimed fisherman to his heart. He enjoyed bar-b-queuing for the family, showing off his skills on the pit. Anthony really enjoyed good old fashion bone slapping, noise talking, big six calling game of Dominoes with family and friends.

Anthony was preceded in death by his loving mother, Elizabeth Patton, father, Cornelius Patton Sr. and his brother, Leonard Lamar Patton. He leaves to cherish his memory, his rock, his confidant, his friend and loving super sister, Chirita Patton Murray; younger siblings, Salisha Patton Hardy (her husband) and Cornelius Patton, Jr.; best friend, Floyd Salone; a caravan of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now, I'm free. I'm following the path God laid you see. I took His hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, oh yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heads, peace to thee God wanted me now He set me free.
