Twenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of the righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever. AMEN

A Celebration Of Life

Curtis Wade Deboise Jr., known as “Little D. or Bubba”, age 39, went to be with the Lord on November 14, 2022, surrounded by his loving family. Curtis was born February 22, 1983, in Dallas, Texas to Curtis Sr. and Eunice Phinisee. Curtis was a native of Dallas, Texas but resided in San Antonio, Texas. Curtis attended Sam Houston High school in 1998.

Although Curtis could not speak, his captivated eyes, contagious smile, and notable head tilt demanded your attention. Even with his physical limitations, God gave Curtis the ability to enjoy life, and with zeal, he inspired and reminded us that LIFE IS GOOD.

Curtis enjoyed watching and listening to old black-and-white films, listening to people’s voices and knew how to communicate without even speaking when he needed something, especially with his mom. Equally important was his role as the oldest firstborn child, to his youngest brother and sister. Curtis will be greatly missed by his family and friends. He will be remembered for being a man of faith, a loving son, and a friend.

Curtis is survived by his loving and caring mother, Eunice Phinisee; brother Sidney Beboise; sister, Madison Coy; grandmother, Eddie Mary Dixon, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, cousin smokey the cat; his loving bunny nephews, Strawberri and Pluto Coy; caring nurse, Stephenie McNeal and friends. Curtis is preceded in death by .and friends. He will be remembered for being a man of Faith, a loving son, and a friend.

My Firstborn Special Son

Would I trade my son for one who could run,
One who could jump and play chase in the sun?
One with potential to grow up to be a doctor, a lawyer, a teacher maybe?
No, I think I will keep my special one even though he is delicate and may never run. For what price can I place on his smile on his touch, on his pair of bright eyes that say so much?
But yet don’t be discouraged, he’s okay.
I know he walked his way to Heaven right up to the gate.
And when he saw Jesus, all he could say was;
“Servant well done” and Curtis will look down upon me.
He is the one God has given me to mold, the one I am to love and rock and hold, No, I think I will keep my special one, because he has made me a “Special Mom”
