

From Me

If you see a sunset, it's me, smiling from behind it.

*If I go away far, and you see a star
if you find it, I'm inside it.*

*You can fold it, and hold it forever,
if you hide it.*

*If our words and worlds sever
if ever I lose you.*

If two thousand light-years or seven confuse you;

*Remember me. Here and in Heaven
I'll see you.*

I'll be beguiling my filing, still smiling to see you.

*When mountains, magenta and moulded turn red,
like you said,*

You'll find the feeling you folded not dead.

You'll steal the swirling sky, turning with me.

You won't be bounded, but burning and free.

Life's Journey

Our beloved mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, aunt and friend, Doris R. Brown passed away with her family by her side on Sunday, November 13, 2022. Doris was the first daughter born to the late Fred and Talitha Perryman of Runge, Texas. Doris was born in Karnes City, Texas in 1920 on her father's 150-acre farm.

Doris worked at South Western Bell Telephone Company as a Custodian. She also was employed in the Service Industry as well as, providing Housekeeping for local families in San Antonio for over fifty years. Doris traveled by VIA Metropolitan everywhere she went and where she made countless friends over the Century.

Doris was a wise woman as she quickly entered the now booming industry of Real Estate in the early 40's. Over time Doris would acquire and own five properties. A great testament to her despite the odds of the world during her time.

Doris was a faithful servant and leader at St. Joseph AME Church under the leadership of Pastor Marilyn Adams for over sixty years. She served on various ministries that included the Choir and Mission Board.

As much as Doris was dedicated to the church she was dedicated to her family. Doris always found time for her boys and grandchildren. Doris was a fisherman and when raising Cliff and Felton, she would often take them to the Coast for days, weeks and even months at a time. A family tradition that remains today.

When riding on Canton Street, each September you could find Doris outside picking her famous pecans in the front yard or hearing her sing from her organ. Doris loved playing her organ for relaxation, visitors and grandchildren.

She was predeceased by her loving husbands Henderson, Alonzo C. Brady Sr. and, Alan. S. Brown; Angel Children lost at birth, sister, Lillian Hortence Perryman-Washington; brothers, Freddy and Curtis Perryman; grandchildren, Coleman, Adrian and Fermeka Keyshon Brady.

Doris will be lovingly remembered by her children: Alonzo Clifford Jr. (Deborah) and Felton Bernard (Danieal) Brady of San Antonio, Texas; grandchildren: Tunisia (Jontae), Felton III, Ashley, Dykeata, April, Fredrick, Justin, as well as numerous great grandchildren, relatives and friends.
